From the desk of Editor-in-Chief

It gives me great pleasure to launch fresh issue of the journal, “Journal of Socio-Economic Review”. There are a lot of challenges which the growing societies face in the realm of basic necessities of every aspect of life. This journal is committed to present the face of face of changing society. This journal is in its initial stage and attempts are being done to present the increased velocity of information and communications among the different segments of the society.

Since the beginning, the editorial team has focused on moving the journal forward and staying true to Ma. Kanshi Ram Shodh Peeth core values to making the society full of equity & equality and ensuring our commitment to academic and professional excellence. As a result, we are experiencing overwhelming growth. We are making efforts to be true to our work & our words.

The present issue has been very carefully put together covering a range of research papers in the domain of history, sociology, political science and economics along with some social practical issue.

The contributions have come from a wide range of academics from the different universities. This journal has issued to hold place in the libraries of the different colleges of this university.

I would like to thank Ch. Charan Singh University and all the editorial team members, reviewers and initial team which has helped in making this journal a possibility. We hope that research featured here sets up many new mile stones. We have had an over whelming response from some very eminent editors and researchers to support as editorial team. I look forward to make this endeavor very meaningful. Very warm thanks to Ch. Charan Singh University, Meerut and Editorial team of this journal to provide an opportunity to make this issue of journal a reality.
